

IAG's Superb Signature Auction - Sale 89 – 17th March!

INTERNATIONAL Auction Galleries' upcoming major Signature Auction - Sale 89 - being held on the 17th March, will be an exciting event on the numismatic calendar! With a large selection of high grade, rare and significant coins and banknotes catalogued and presale estimates in excess of $2,000,000, this auction will be the place to be seen for collectors young and old. Catalogues will be available early March. Visit their website where the entire auction can be viewed and bid on Online or for further information: www.iagauctions.com Included in the auction are six major collections and over 40 individual vendors, with some superb highlights on offer, with a wide range of material across pretty much every major Numismatic area. Highlights recently catalogued include a 100 Pound 1924 Cerutti-Collins (R 69b) in VF/gVF. Estimated at only $65,000, this rare and seldom offered high denomination note is sure to create some stiff competition!

The finest known Holey Dollar 1805 and the finest known Adelaide Pound 1852 Type II (featured in IAG's Sale 88) have been reduced in an attempt to meet the current market, and will both be reoffered at a tempting price for two such key rarities. A consecutive pair of 20 Pounds 1913 Collins-Allen (R 64) in gEF/aUNC will again be on offer, and with a low estimate of only $55,000 per note, these are sure to attract significant interest. Amongst the larger collections of Banknotes is a number of Pre Federation Specimen notes, including two 100 Pounds, two 50 Pounds, and a number of rare types including a rare 10 Pound National Bank of Australasia - Perth issue.

Cataloguing was still underway as this issue went to print, with a number of other key items expected to be added in the final weeks before the auction closes off. Other highlights featured in this sale so far include a large collection of high grade PCGS Pre Decimal issues, two 1930 Pennies (both estimated at under $15,000), a number of rare copper Pre Decimal Proof coins including a full PCGS graded set of copper issues from 1955-1963, along with a large quantity of Pre Decimal Banknotes, a full set of Decimal Starnotes, Specimens, First and Last Prefixes, Decimal including polymer, Misprints and much more!

Along with several estates there is also a good selection of World coins, Gold, British, RAM and Perth Mint Products, Internment Camps and Tokens including a rare ASN Co Penny, Misstrikes that include the elusive Mule Perth Mint 1 ounce Silver Kookaburra, all along with a quantity of bulk lots, collections, albums and so much more – certainly something for every collector and every budget!

Bidding opens in early March, and the catalogue will be online then to view and download free. Join up online today to receive further information and to bid online.
