Strong Result for IAG's Auction Sale 89

IAG's March Signature Auction, Sale Number 89, again concluded with a strong result, with almost $900,000 in total sales and a more than 80% clearance rate! The live floor bidding competed strongly with over 2500 pre-sale online bids and three active phone bidders. More than 1,200 people logged in to view and bid on the auction Online, another record and a sign of the growing strength of IAG's Online bidding system.

Top price of the auction went to a superb consecutive pair of 20 Pounds 1913 Collins-Allen (R 64) in gEF/aUNC (both from different vendors), which sold for a combined total of $125,660 – which are once again destined to be kept apart, as they sadly went to two different buyers!

The first part of a large banknote collection which was formed over many years by an avid collector realised over $210,000 in total sales. The collection includes Pre Federation, Pre Decimal,

The 1919 Proof Penny PR 65BN sold for $23,790.

Decimal, Starnotes and more. Some lots brought as much as double the pre sale estimates to strong postal and floor bidding! One significant sale was a 10 Shillings 1933 (R 9) in UNC, a rare note in this grade which achieved $15,860 against an estimate of $9,000.

Other highlights from this fabulous collection included numerous rare Pre Federation banknotes, which were again strongly contested, with as many as three phone bidders on the go on the same lots! Further highlights included a 1 Pound Sydney Deposit Bank in lovely grade, selling for $8,662 (against an estimate of $4,200) and a very rare 100 Pd Bank of NSW issued note in VF hammered for $11,712 (estimated at $8,500), and an extremely rare 1 Pound NSW Govt Treasury note sold for $11,590. Part two of this collection will be coming up soon!

Coins of note included a 1919 Proof Penny PCGS PR 65BN selling for $23,790, a rare ASNCo Penny Token which achieved $5,856, a Fine 1930 Penny sold for $19,520, whilst a choice 1918 Penny PCGS graded MS 64 RB sold for a solid $4,392. A very rare Chinese silver Dollar 1914 sold for ten times its estimate, finally hammering down after more than 40 postal and floor bids for $6,222! Additional to this was a collection of choice Proclamation gold and silver issues from an old collection which realised over $25,000 in total sales.

IAG's next "Signature" live floor auction is Sale 90 in September with Live Online only Auctions planned for May, June and August 2019. All vendors who consign to these upcoming auctions can do so now. IAG's Auctions offer all vendors no sellers fees or commissions, potentially getting them as much as 20% more in hand!
