Highlights from the Eridmatos Collection

- 757 1944. Double-struck, with the 2nd strike 25% off-centre. PCGS graded AU 55 (37155111). Some marks from striking, lustrous mint brown. A really striking example of this rare error type, with lovely clear doubling of design on both sides. Rare.

$900-$1000

- 758 1971. Struck on an uncertain cupro-nickel blank (2.55g/17.5mm), likely as a trial (a few similar examples on silver, lead and white metal have been noted previously). Thicker than a standard 1 Cent. Deliberate deep scratches across Obverse (likely to void) and some marks to Reverse. Ex IAG S97 March 2023 (Lot 1977). Rare.

$900-$1000

- 759 1974. Die cap error, with severely dished Reverse and spread flan Obverse. PCGS graded MS 64 RB (30336011). Nice mint brown and red lustre and a great example of this rare error type.

$2300-$2400

760 N/D (1966-1984). Struck from two Reverse dies. NGC graded MS 65 RB (2058347-001). Dark brown with some mint red. Dies rotated 180 degrees as is usual for this error. Very rare in this denomination, being the only such one we have seen.

$1800-$2000

761 1988. Struck on a 1 Cent planchet, slightly off-centre causing LH legend to be missing. PCGS graded MS 64 RD (37155113). Mostly mint red. Very scarce as such.

$1100-$1200

762 1988. Struck on a 1 Cent planchet. PCGS graded MS 64 RD (37229873). Bright nearly full mint red and rare as such.

$1100-$1400

- 763 1989. Struck on an unknown cupro-nickel planchet (5.23g). Light tone with some minor marks. Appears to be struck on what could be a 10 Cent blank, however the weight is not correct. Well centred and a most unusual, but undetermined wrong planchet error. Possibly unique.

$1800-$2000

- 764 N/D (1966-1984). Struck massively (75%) off-centre, leaving just a trace of stepped design. PCGS graded MS 63 BN (84618020). Brown lustre. A significant error and rare.

$1100-$1200

- 765 N/D (1966-1998). Struck on a 5 Cent cupro-nickel planchet (2.82g). Slight weakness from striking with significant edge lettering missing. Very rare with only a few such examples known.

$1200-$1400

766 N/D (1966-2016). Struck from two Reverse dies. PCGS graded MS 63 RB (240727705). Dies rotated 180 degrees as is usual for this error. Dark toned with mint purple/red lustre. Very rare, especially in this denomination with only a few known.

$1800-$2000

767 1966. Struck 30% off-centre with large rim lip. PCGS graded MS 64 (40727703). Light tone with bloom. Very rare, especially as an early high grade example.

$1100-$1200

768 1970 5 Cent Die, officially lathed to cancel and over stamped FE 799. In custom RAM display case. Also includes 1970 5 Cent PCGS graded MS 65 (30886726) and two (1982) RAM Mint rolls along with a few loose assorted date 5 Cents coins that were originally glued to the display. Case inscribed ROYAL AUSTRALIAN MINT 1970 - 5C COIN DIE with an outline of the Queens portrait on the back. A unique, highly collectable and extremely rare item that fully represents the eclectic, high grade and highly desirable nature of this important collection.

$5000-$6000

769 1977. Split planchet, with both halves included. Toned.

$180-$200

770 1978. Mule with a Fiji 5 Cent traditional boat Reverse and Australian QE II Obverse. PCGS graded GENUINE - Cleaned - AU Detail (40727707). Possibly once cleaned with some light surface hairlines and slight tone that in no way detracts from this key decimal error. Very rare.

$10000-$12000

771 1980. Full Reverse brockage. PCGS graded MS 62 (40727704). Light tone. A nice clear portrait and rare as such. Ex IAG FS 10 (Lot 411).

$1200-$1400

772 1982. Struck against another blank with a partial Reversed Obverse brockage image to 80% on Reverse. PCGS graded MS 65 (37326734). Light tone with bloom. Rare, especially in this grade.

$1100-$1200

773 1989. Struck on a copper-zinc 1 Cent planchet. PCGS graded MS 64 RB (37326731). Partial rim missing on Reverse. Bright red mint lustre and one of the best examples known of this error.

$1300-$1400

774 2007. Struck with two Obverse dies. PCGS graded AU 58 (37155114). Dies rotated 180 degrees as is usual for this error. Light tone with some bloom and very rare.

$1800-$2000

- 775 2014. Struck on a 2 Dollar cupro-nickel planchet, with a large spread flange and slightly raised rims on both sides making this a truly spectacular and unique error. PCGS graded MS 63 (38446523). Extremely rare, if not unique.

$4500-$5000

- 776 N/D (1966-1984). Struck through die cap error. PCGS graded MS 63 (37474807). Light tone with a few Obverse marks. A light impression of the Queens portrait on Obverse. Rare.

$450-$500

- 777 N/D (1999-2018). Struck 35% off-centre with a large, slightly raised rim lip. PCGS graded MS 64 (36891847). Bright mint bloom. Very scarce.

$900-$1000

778 1994. Struck on a 5 Cent copper-nickel planchet, causing part missing legend on Obverse. PCGS graded MS 65 (83914941). Bright mint bloom. Very rare.

$2800-$3000

779 1966L. Wavy baseline of 2 variety. PCGS graded MS 64 (81785827). Light old tone. Very scarce in this grade.

$2500-$2600

780 1972. Struck on a 10 Cent planchet, causing most of the legend to be missing. PCGS graded MS 64 (83914943). Light tone with bloom. A very rare major decimal error, and in high grade.

$2500-$2600

781 1975. Struck with two Obverse dies. Dies rotated 180 degrees as is usual for this error. Toned and very rare. Ex IAG S 55 January 2002 (Lot 428) and S 95 May 2022 (Lot 652).

$2500-$2600

782 1996. Struck on an unknown copper planchet. PCGS graded MS 64 RB (40727706). Red and brown with bright mint lustre. The only example of this date we have seen (with a couple of the 1983 issues also known). Very rare. Ex IAG S 92 October 2020 (Lot 609).

$6000-$7000

783 2001. Struck on a bi-metallic planchet (10.7g), likely an Iranian 250 Rials. PCGS graded MS 63 (39138561). Light tone with bright bloom. Referenced in an article in the September 2017 Edition (pg 10) of the Australasian Coin and Banknote Magazine. Possibly the most stunning Decimal coin error, believed to be only two examples known, with this easily the best in terms of grade.

$15000-$17000

- 784 1976. Struck on a 20 Cent copper-nickel planchet. PCGS graded MS 64 (37155123). Slightly off-centre with part edge design and lettering missing from the smaller planchet. Light old tone. A very rare and possibly unique error for this year.

$6000-$7000

- 785 1981 Charles and Di. Struck on an underweight, foreign planchet (9.5g), causing missing vertices. PCGS graded MS 63 (37155129). Light tone. Appears to be struck on a Hong Kong $5 decahedral blank (9.5 grams). EX IAG Sale 86 (sold for $11,224). A striking and extremely rare major Decimal error, and only the second such example of this we have handled. Extremely rare.

$2500-$2600

- 786 1981. Obstructed strike; indented with a 2 Cent sized (21mm round) blank planchet to right of Reverse leaving a large depressed impression. PCGS graded MS 63 (81763009). The only example of this major error type we have seen, and probably unique. Ex IAG SVS 1 October 216 (Lot 516).

$3400-$3500

787 1982 Commonwealth Games. Ramstrike error, struck out of collar with even, high fins, thick edges and a slightly dished Reverse. A few minor marks from striking, however a unique and stunning major error. Ex IAG Sale 93 March 2021 (Lot 871).

$2500-$2600

788 1988 Coat of Arms Mule. This year was not issued with standard Coat of Arms Reverse, but was issued with the Bi-Centenary Reverse. Light hint of tone with bright bloom. In Downies box with COA. Extremely rare and important, with possibly only 2 examples known.

$18000-$20000

789 1988 Coat of Arms Mule Proof. PCGS graded PR 63 DCAM (81319131). This year not issued with a standard Coat of Arms Reverse, but was issued with the Bi-Centenary Reverse. Light hint of Reverse tone with bright bloom (slight tone not visible on this original image). Excessively rare, and one of the key Decimal errors of the highest importance.

$18000-$20000

790 1991 Decimal Currency 25th Anniversary Reverse. Struck on a 10 Cent copper-nickel planchet. PCGS graded MS 65 (39845543). Full bright mint bloom. A significant and spectacular major error, and possibly unique. Ex IAG S 86 September 2017 (Lot 727) and S 91 (Lot 696).

$3600-$3800

791 1991 Decimal Currency 25th Anniversary Reverse. Struck on a 20 Cent copper-nickel planchet. PCGS graded MS 65 (42878489). Bright mint bloom. A significant and spectacular major error, and possibly unique.

$3600-$3800

792 2000 Millennium. Struck on a 20 Cent copper-nickel planchet (11.28g). PCGS graded MS 64 (39845545). Slight Obverse edge lettering missing. Full bright mint bloom. A major decimal error and probably unique. Ex IAG S 90 September 2019 (Lot 825).

$3800-$3800

793 N/D (1999-2016). Struck on a 10 Cent copper-nickel planchet, causing missing legend. PCGS graded MS 62 (37326729). Light tone with bloom. Very rare and a striking looking error on such a small planchet. Ex IAG OS 12 December 2018 (Lot 377).

$2500-$2600

794 N/D (1999-2019). Double-struck; with a sharp second strike 30% off-centre. PCGS graded MS 63 (37155122). Bright mint bloom. A major and very striking error, and very rare as such.

$3400-$3500

795 1984. Struck on a 10 Cent copper-nickel planchet. PCGS graded MS 64 (34905186). Light tone with some underlying mint bloom. Only a handful of this error type known, with this possibly the best condition example. Rare.

$2500-$2600

- 796 2014 Anzac Centenary. Struck twice off-centre; once 25% and once 60% causing a large spread flan with a slightly raised large off centre rim lip. PCGS graded MS 65 (37155128). A stunning error in beautiful condition and extremely rare, with no other graded examples.

$3000-$3200

- 797 2016. Struck on an underweight c/al/n planchet (6g/23mm). PCGS graded MS 62 (37155121). Part design along Obverse edge missing due to smaller (unknown) planchet. Bright mint bloom. A very rare and possibly unique error type for this issue. Ex IAG OS 12 December 2018 (Lot 381).

$2100-$2200

- 798 2016. Struck twice, with the second strike 35% off-centre. PCGS graded MS 65 (39845548). Light tone with bright bloom. A large and sharp high grade off-centre striking making this a spectacular looking error. Rare as such. Ex IAG OS 12 December 2018 (Lot 381).

$2500-$2600

799 N/D (1985-1998). Struck massively (90%) off-centre, leaving just a trace of stepped design. PCGS graded MS 64 (34962706). A significant error and rare.

$1200-$1400

800 1992. Struck on a cupro-nickel 5 Cent planchet. PCGS graded MS 65 (41008463). Dies rotated 90 degrees, bright mint bloom, some edge weakness to lettering from striking. Extremely rare, if not unique and a key modern decimal error.

$4500-$5500

801 2000. Struck on a Euro 10 Cent Nordic gold planchet, causing faint strike and details to much of the coin. PCGS graded MS 62 (26604033). Some tone. Very rare. Ex IAG PS 6 January 2016 (Lot 652).

$1200-$1400

802 2009. Double struck, with the second strike 70% off-centre and rotated 170 degrees. PCGS graded MS 63 (33877032). Some bright mint lustre. Rare. Ex IAG PS 6 January 2016 (Lot 653).

$1800-$2000

803 2019 Police Remembrance coloured. Colourisation error, with the colour pad-printed over the Queens portrait on the Obverse. PCGS graded MS 66 (38128279). Bright mint bloom. A high grade genuine example of this most interesting error type and very rare as such.

$4000-$4500

804 2020 Firefighters coloured. Colourisation error, with the colour pad-printed over the Queens portrait on the Obverse. PCGS graded MS 65 (41694128). Bright mint bloom. A high grade genuine example of this most interesting error type and very rare as such.
