

IAG's Superb Signature Auction Sale 90 – 15th September 2019

IAG's next major Signature Auction - Sale 90 - to be held on the 15th September, is online now! Every lot is photographed in IAG's cutting edge bidding program, pdf catalogues are free to download and you can view and read the catalogue in Ebook format. However you look at it, this is a significant sale not to be missed!

Some key highlights include the finest of only three known 1914 Collins-Allen 5 Pounds (R 36a) with dark blue serial numbers. A key note missing from almost every serious collection, and originally sold in 2009 for a record $81,550, this rare note is estimated at $25,000 and sure to be snapped up! Other key notes include rare 100 Pound notes from two different banknote collections, one in VF condition and one in gFine. This issue is rarely seen on the market, making this sale a fantastic opportunity to grab one of Sale 90's key Pre Decimal banknotes.

The bulk of Sale 90 comprises of six major collections, with highlights including more than FIFTY Pre Federation Banknotes, a superb Proof 1938 Crown, Two Adelaide Pounds, a 1930 Penny and a multitude of high grade Pre Decimal Banknotes, including a selection of large issues along with a nice 50 Pound note.

Other highlights of note in this sale is a large quantity of high grade Pre Decimal coins with superb grade PCGS and raw coins, along with a number of rare Pre Decimal Proof issues including a Proof 1924 Threepence. A large selection of more Banknotes includes Specimen and Star notes, a 1 Pound with Million Serials, First and Last Prefixes, paper and polymer Decimal, Misprinted notes, NPA and more.

Several old collections are spearheaded by a fantastic and large selection of World, British and Proclamation issues including many key and rare coins. The more than 40 lots of Proclamation includes two Johannas, six Half Johannas and a wide variety of issues with many in gold. The more than 100 lots of British coins include early hammered issued right through to proof sets, full cased 1902 Edward VII and 1911 George V Coronation sets as well as many gold issues.

Along with this there are several estate collections amid over forty separate vendors that feature everything from unreserved lots, Gold issues, bulk and quantities of Pre Decimal coinage including many scarce dates, Rare Mis-Struck coins including a 5 Cent Fiji Mule, Mint Products, Ancient coins including a rare Alexander the Great gold Distater, Tokens and Internments Camps, numerous World Banknotes with many rare issues and so much more. Sale 90 really has something for every collector and every budget!

View every lot in the auction and place bids Online now for free! Go to www.iagauctions.com where there is also more Auction information, previous catalogues and prices realised, and vendor information including a function to submit items for future auctions. Contact IAG direct on - Phone (07) 55 380 300 – Email mail@iagauctions.com with any queries.

☆☆☆

A few of the many Rare Coins In Sale 90.

Just 3 of the Rare Pre Decimal Banknotes on offer.