

IAG's Significant Signature Auction 95 – April 2022!

A 1930 Penny PCGS graded XF 40

Part of the collection of rare Australian coins

INTERNATIONAL Auction Galleries' next Signature Auction, Sale 95 - to be held in April 2022 – is already shaping up as another significant milestone auction! With supply gradually trickling back in, a number of major collections have already been catalogued, with the depth of rare material catalogued for this auction already highly impressive. This is testament to their 40+ years of trade, reputation for integrity and vendor-friendly policies.

These collections for Signature Sale 95 include three of just coin rarities – a Holey Dollar and Dump, Square Penny, an XF 40 1930 Penny and a 1923 Halfpenny graded AU 58, along with fifteen George V and

Part of the George V and VI Penny Proof collection

Part of the George V and VI Halfpenny Proof collection

George VI Pre Decimal Proof coins that make a solid base to this key section. Some other Proofs lotted include rare issues such as Proof Halfpennies 1939 Roo, 1942Y and 1946Y along with 1935, 1938 and 1943I Copper Pairs, 1934 and 1939 Proof Pennies, a 1927 Canberra Florin and 1910 and 1933 'Specimen' Shillings along with a large selection of other QE II issues.

A large assortment of gold coins includes one of the finest known 1862 Sydney Mint Half Sovereigns, whilst a strong selection of World and Australian banknotes already includes many rare issues, highlighted by a 100 Pound Bank of New Zealand Specimen. Several other large collections are waiting transportation, and will be added to this already impressive assemblage in the New Year.

Along with these many highlights is Part IV of the vast estate of the late Klaus Ford, a large quantity of World Coins and Banknotes, tokens, medals, Pre Decimal and Decimal coins and banknotes, mint products and a large quantity of bulk and unreserved lots.

A very rare NZ 100 Pound Specimen Banknote

Cataloguing for Sale 95 is almost finalised, however there are spots for quality items available. For further information or to take advantage and consign to this important auction, visit IAG's website: www.iagauctions.com for more details, auction information, previous catalogues, prices realised and more, or contact IAG now on - Phone (07) 55 380 300 – or email mail@iagauctions.com with any queries.

☆☆☆

IAG's Significant Signature Auction 95 - April 2022!

INTERNATIONAL Auction Galleries' next Signature Auction, Sale 95 - to be held in April 2022 – is just about to be finalised to go to print! Another three significant collections are catalogued along with an already impressive amount of high quality and rare items, which is sure to make this significant sale an auction not to be missed!

One of the absolute key items just catalogued is a 20 Pound Superscribed banknote. One of only two known, and with the highest of provenances, being ex the Dr Alan Nicholson collection, the Walscott collection and the Ray Jewell collection. This is the first time in over 25 years this significant rarity has been offered on the market! Estimated at $90,000 and certain to draw interest from Pre Federation collectors both locally and internationally, the chance to acquire such a unique and rare note is sure to cause some excitement.

Other items of note also catalogued for IAG's Signature Sale 95 include a Holey Dollar and a Dump, a Square

Penny, an XF 40 1930 Penny and a 1923 Halfpenny graded AU 58, along with fifteen George V and George VI Pre Decimal Proof coins that make a solid base to this key section. Some other Proofs lotted include rare issues such as Proof Halfpennies 1939 Roo, 1942Y and 1946Y along with 1935, 1938 and 1943I Copper Pairs, 1934 and 1939 Proof Pennies, a 1927 Canberra Florin and 1910 and 1933 'Specimen' Shillings, along with a large selection of other QE II proof issues and high grade PCGS coins.

Along with these many highlights is Part IV of the vast estate of former dealer Klaus Ford, a large quantity of World Coins and Banknotes, tokens, medals, Pre Decimal and Decimal coins and banknotes, Mint products and some bulk and unreserved lots. A feature collection of Ancient and Proclamation coinage and a large collection of gold adds even more to the fantastic selection on offer in IAG's upcoming Sale 95.

Cataloguing for Sale 95 is almost finalised, however there are limited spots for quality items available if you act immediately. To take advantage of this opportunity and consign to this auction, visit IAG at www.iagauctions.com. For auction information, previous catalogues, prices realised and more, contact IAG now on - Phone (07) 55 380 300 – or email mail@iagauctions.com.

☆☆☆

A Very Rare 20 Pound Superscribe - 1 of only 2 Examples Known.