

IAG's Significant Signature Auction 96 October 2022!

IAG's next major Signature Auction, Sale 96 - to be held in October 2022 - is already shaping as one of their best sales ever! A number of large old collections (all stuck in limbo over the covid period) have finally come to light, and the depth and value of the material already catalogued for this auction is very impressive.

One key area featured in this sale is an old collection of Pre Federation issued and Specimen notes, including a number of original printing plates for these notes. The highlight of this collection is a unique complete set of Bank of New South Wales issued notes from One Pound to One Hundred Pounds, featuring printing plates for every note (except for the Fifty Pound). This museum quality set is sure to draw widespread interest both for its rarity and its historical significance.

Another huge old collection comprises a massive selection of gold (to be sold over two auctions) including more than 500 Sovereigns from Bullion up to UNC quality, a quantity of large natural gold nuggets of almost 1 kilo weight as well as 30 full Perth Mint gold cased proof sets and a unique Holey Dollar struck on a 1787 Lima Mint 8 Reales.

Other key items catalogued so far also include a Port Phillip Taylor Pattern Silver Sixpence, a number of pre Decimal Proofs including a 1938 Crown, three Adelaide Pounds in varying grades including one MS 62 example, a number of 1930 Pennies in various grades to aVF, two Kookaburra Pennies and a rare GB gold 5 Guineas James II of 1687 are just some of the impressive highlights catalogued so far.

Consignments for Sale 96 will close off in mid August, giving keen vendors a final chance to consign before the catalogue and auction go online a month after that. More Key Highlights in IAG's Signature Auction 96!

This Superb Queen Anne Pattern Farthing struck in gold will be a major highlight of IAG's Signature Auction 96.

Another rarity: the gold Proof 1826 George IV Two Pounds in FDC.

THE amazing highlights keep on coming for IAG's next major Signature Auction, Sale 96, to be held mid October 2022. An old collection come to light recently has unearthed some nice old British coins, including two rare gems - a 1713 Queen Anne Pattern Farthing struck in gold and a gold Proof Two Pound 1826 in superb FDC grade! The Pattern Anne gold Farthing in particular is an extremely rare item seldom seen anywhere, and is sure to be heavily sought after with interest expected from across the globe for this popular and beautiful coin. process by Isaac Newton (who had been promoted to the post of Master of the Mint in December 1699), these trial pieces were an initial attempt at solving some of the issues surrounding striking coins in copper at the time. Very few examples in gold are known, making this coins' rarity and mystique compelling, to say the least.

Three huge Australian Pre Decimal collections are still in the process of being sorted and catalogued to be offered over this (and proceeding) auction. These collections feature complete sets of raw Pre Decimal coinage including key dates, with many in high grade including a number of 1930 Pennies and 1923 Halfpennies in high grade.

A large offering of gold includes more than 500 Sovereigns from Bullion to UNC quality, three Adelaide Pounds 1852, a quantity of large natural gold nuggets of almost 1 kilo total weight as well as 30 full Perth Mint gold cased proof sets.

The catalogue for Sale 96 will be available online in mid-late September, with online bidding also opening at this time. Every lot in the sale can be viewed then, and the catalogues downloaded for free.
