

Another Record Breaking IAG Signature Auction - Sale 96!

International Auction Galleries’ latest Signature Sale - Sale 96 in October, produced yet another strong result in a run of highly successful auctions held by them. With realisations averaging 30% above pre sale Reserves with a record 96% Clearance rate from 2000 lots, the more than 1,000 Online bidders enjoyed a lively couple of days of bidding, with a number of lots attracting more than 50 bids! The final sale realisation of over $1.5 million from over 500 buyers and 20,000 bids continued IAG’s strong run of recent auction success.

	Lot: 390 Category: British Coins Description: Crown Anne 1705. Pre Union Plumes type, seven strings to harp. Steely grey old toned. With tag as sold previously for $20,000 (as gEF and describing it as the second finest known). A very scarce date, and especially so in this grade. aEF/EF Estimate: $3,800 - $4,000 Bids: 69 Current Bid: $12,000
	Lot: 1713 Category: The 70 Year Collection Description: Penny. 1920 Dot Below. Indian die. Brown with red/blue lustre and sharp details, small edge knocks and spot otherwise specimen-like. Very scarce this grade. Ch.UNC/GEM Estimate: $2,300 - $2,400 Bids: 64 Current Bid: $13,500
	Lot: 404 Category: British Coins Description: Pattern Farthing Anne 1713 struck in gold. Struck with thicker large flan type (25mm) and weight of (9.54 grams). Obverse draped bust of Queen left, legend ANNA AUGVSTA. Reverse Britannia left on chariot holding branch and scepter with deeply toothed denticles, legend PAX.MISSA.PER.ORBEM, date 1713 underneath. Struck from dies by John Croker in a trial process conducted by Sir Isaac Newton (who had been promoted to the post of Master of the Mint in December 1699). These trial pieces were an initial attempt at solving some of the issues surrounding striking coins in copper at the time. Small flan cracks, some light wear (possibly from testing) and a few surface marks. Old tone. With original old tag with hand typed details noting: Ext. rare only two or three known. Extremely rare and of superb style. aEF Estimate: $28,000 - $30,000 Bids: 50 Current Bid: $52,000
